4.7. Inspections of Borrower's Facilities and Collateral. At all reasonable times the Administration and its agents and designees shall have full access and the right to enter any of the Borrower's Facilities to inspect the Collateral and to audit, check, inspect and make abstracts and copies from Borrower's Books and Records or any of its books, records, audits, correspondence and all other papers relating to its assets and the operation of Borrower's business relating to the Project and the Borrower shall pay the reasonable costs of such inspections.

4.8. Financial Statements, Books, and Records. The Borrower will (a) at all times maintain, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or other consistently applied accounting methods, accurate and complete books and records pertaining to (1) the operation, business, and financial condition of the Borrower, (2) the Collateral, and (3) any contracts and collections relating to the Collateral; (b) furnish to the Administration promptly upon request, and in form and content and at the intervals specified by the Administration, any information concerning the operation, business, affairs, and financial condition of the Borrower as the Administration may request; (c) at all reasonable times and without delay, permit the Administration and its agents to enter any of the Borrower's Facilities where any books, records, and other data concerning the Borrower or the Collateral or the Books and Records regarding the Project may be kept and to examine, audit, inspect, and photocopy any of those books, records, and other data; (d) furnish to the Administration promptly upon request and in the form and content specified by the Administration lists of purchasers of inventory, aging of accounts, aggregate cost or wholesale market value of inventory, schedules of equipment, and other data concerning the Collateral as the Administration may specify, and (e) mark its books and records in a manner satisfactory to the Administration so that the Administration's rights in the Collateral will be shown.

4.9. Insurance. The Borrower shall obtain and continuously maintain insurance for so long as the Loan remains outstanding in accordance with the requirements set forth in Exhibit C to the Loan Agreement. The specified insurance shall protect the Collateral against any risks, in amounts, deductibles, and with companies acceptable to the Administration, and each policy shall contain an endorsement satisfactory to the Administration (a) naming the Administration as loss payee and additional insured, and (b) prohibiting the policy from being cancelled or altered or the Administration from being removed as loss payee without at least 30 days prior written notice to the Administration. In all events, the amounts of insurance coverages shall conform to prudent business practices and shall be in amounts so that the Borrower will not be deemed a co-insurer under applicable insurance laws, policies, or practices. The Borrower hereby assigns to the Administration and grants to the Administration a continuing security interest in any proceeds of such policies and authorizes the Administration to adjust or compromise any loss under those policies and to collect and receive all proceeds. The Borrower authorizes and directs each insurance company to pay all proceeds directly and solely to the Administration. The Borrower hereby designates the Administration and its designees as attorney-in-fact of the Borrower (which appointment is coupled with an interest), irrevocably and with power of substitution, with authority to execute and endorse in the Borrower's name all proofs of loss, drafts, checks, and any other documents necessary to accomplish such collection. Any person making payments to the Administration under the terms of this section is hereby relieved from any obligation to see to the application of any sums paid.

After deducting all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by the Administration in the collection and handling of the proceeds from any insurance proceeds, the net proceeds shall be applied as follows: (a) If no Event of Default as defined under § 8 below currently exists, net proceeds may be applied, at the Borrower's option, either toward replacing or restoring the Equipment, in a manner and on terms satisfactory to the Administration, or as a credit against any of the Borrower's Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, as determined by the Administration. In the event that the Borrower elects to replace or restore the Equipment, then net proceeds shall be deposited in a segregated account of the Borrower subject to the sole order of the Administration and shall be disbursed by the Administration in the manner and at the times as the Administration deems appropriate to complete the replacement or restoration. If an Event of Default occurs at any time before the completion of replacement or restoration, then the Administration shall have the option to apply all remaining net proceeds either toward replacing or restoring the Equipment, in a manner and on terms satisfactory to the Administration, or as a credit against any of the Borrower's Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, as determined by the Administration. (b) If an Event of Default occurs prior to the deposit of the net proceeds, then the Administration may apply the net proceeds either toward replacing or restoring the Equipment, in a manner and on terms satisfactory to the Administration, or as a credit against any of the Borrower's Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, as determined by the Administration.

The Borrower will cause each insurance company to deliver annually to the Administration evidence, satisfactory to the Administration, that all required insurance is in effect.

4.10. Assignments. Whenever required by the Administration, the Borrower shall promptly deliver to the Administration, with all endorsements and assignments required by the Administration, all instruments, chattel paper, guaranties and the like received by the Borrower relating to any of the Collateral or proceeds of any of the Collateral. Any assignments are to secure payment of the Borrower's Obligations and performance under the Financing Documents and do not constitute a sale of any property to the Administration, whether or not any assignment is in absolute form.

4.11. Further Assurances. The Borrower will defend its title to the Collateral against all persons and will, upon request of the Administration, (a) furnish any further assurances of title required by the Administration, and (b) obtain, deliver and execute, or cause to be obtained, delivered and executed, in form and content satisfactory to the Administration, any document requested by the Administration in order to perfect, preserve, maintain, or continue the perfection of the Administration's security interest in the Collateral or its priority, including, for example, the filing of financing statements and other notices and amendments, renewals, continuations, or terminations of any financing statements or security agreements, and the Borrower shall take any and all steps and observe such formalities as the Administration may reasonably request, in order to create, perfect, protect and maintain a valid lien upon any and all of the Collateral. The Borrower will pay the costs of preparation and filing of any document under this subsection, including any required recordation or transfer taxes. All charges, expenses and fees the Administration may incur in doing any of the foregoing, and any local taxes or fees relating thereto, shall be charged to the Borrower's account and added to the Obligations, or, at the Administration's option, shall be paid to the Administration immediately upon demand.

5. Care of Collateral. The Borrower shall bear all risk of loss of the Collateral. The Administration shall have no liability or duty, either before or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, for loss or damage to any part of the Collateral, to collect or enforce any of its rights against the Collateral, to collect any income accruing on the Collateral, or to preserve rights against account borrowers or other parties with prior interests in the Collateral. If the Administration receives any notices requiring action concerning any Collateral in the Administration's possession, the Administration shall take reasonable steps to forward those notices to the Borrower. The Borrower is responsible for responding to notices concerning the Collateral, voting the Collateral, and exercising rights and options, calls and conversions of the Collateral. The Administration's sole responsibility is to take any action reasonably requested by the Borrower in writing; but the Administration is not required to take any action that, in the Administration's sole judgment, would adversely affect the value of the Collateral as security for the Borrower's Obligations. Regardless of any instruction from the Borrower, if the Administration determines that action is needed to preserve and maintain the Collateral, the Borrower authorizes the Administration to take such actions. Following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default the Administration: (a) may at any time take such steps as the Administration deems necessary to protect the Administration's interest in and to preserve the Collateral, and (b) shall have, and is hereby granted, a right of ingress and egress to places where the Collateral is located, and may proceed over and through any of Borrower's owned or leased property. All of the Administration's expenses of preserving the Collateral shall be charged to the Borrower's account and added to the Obligations.

6. Authorization and Power-of-Attorney. The Borrower authorizes and designates the Administration (which appointment is coupled with an interest), irrevocably and with power of substitution, to take any action authorized under this Agreement or the Financing Documents, whether in the name of the Administration or the Borrower. The Borrower hereby also irrevocably authorizes and directs all accountants and auditors employed by Borrower at any time while the Loan remains outstanding to exhibit and deliver to the Administration copies of any of Borrower's financial statements, trial balances or other accounting records of any sort in the accountant's or auditor's possession, and to disclose to the Administration any information they may have concerning Borrower's financial status and business operations.

7. Performance by Administration. If the Borrower fails to comply with any term of this Agreement, the Administration, without notice or demand to the Borrower and without waiving or releasing any of the Borrower's Obligations or any Event of Default, may (but is not obligated to) perform any act necessary or appropriate to comply with such terms for the account and at the expense of the Borrower, and may enter upon any of the Borrower's Facilities for that purpose. Expenses paid, and costs (including collection fees and expenses) incurred, by the Administration in connection with the foregoing (collectively, the "Expense Payments"), together with interest thereon at a per annum rate of interest equal to 12 % per annum from the date the Administration notifies the Borrower in writing of the Expense Payments, until repaid in full, shall be paid by the Borrower to the Administration on demand and shall become a part of the Borrower's Obligations secured under this Agreement.

8. Events of Default. The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default under this Agreement:

8.1. The Borrower fails to pay the principal amount of the Loan and any applicable interest thereon according to the terms of the Note or any other payment required by any of the Financing Documents, including the Borrower's Obligations and failure to cure such event within 30 days of written notice to Borrower;

8.2. 8.7. The Borrower breaches any covenant, representation, warranty, or other provision of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within 30 days from the date the Borrower receives written notice of the breach from the Administration; provided, however that the Borrower shall not receive a 30-day cure period under this subsection for any breach for which there is a specific default set forth in this section;

8.8. Any change in any zoning ordinance or any other public restriction is enacted which limits or defines the uses that may be made on any part of the Project, so that the use of the Project would be in violation of the restriction or zoning change and the Project would not be useable for a purpose consistent with the Act (as set for the in the Annotated Code of Maryland State Government Article §9–20A–03) for more than 10 days after written notice of default shall have been provided from the Administration to the Borrower;

8.9 Any portion of, or interest in, the Project is sold, leased, subleased, transferred, encumbered, or otherwise conveyed, without the prior written consent of the Administration;

8.10 The Borrower fails to comply with any requirement of any Governmental Authority within 30 days after written notice of the requirement is made or within any other time period set by the Governmental Authority; or if any proceeding is commenced or action taken to enforce any remedy for a violation of any requirement of a Governmental Authority or any restrictive covenant affecting any part of the Project;

9. Rights and Remedies of the Administration.

9.1. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Administration may, without notice or demand, exercise in any jurisdiction in which enforcement hereof is sought, the following rights and remedies, in addition to the rights and remedies available to the Administration under the other Financing Documents, the Maryland Uniform Commercial Code, or any other applicable law:

(c) Take possession of the Collateral, and enter any of the Borrower's Facilities and remove the Collateral without any liability to the Administration, the Borrower hereby waiving any and all rights to prior notice and to judicial hearing concerning repossession of the Collateral, and require the Borrower, at the Borrower's expense, to assemble and deliver the Collateral to any place designated by the Administration.

(d) Operate, manage, and control the Collateral (including use of the Collateral and any other property or assets of the Borrower in order to continue or complete performance of the Borrower's obligations under any contracts of the Borrower), or permit any of the Collateral to remain idle, and collect all rents and revenues therefrom and sell or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral upon any terms and conditions as the Administration may determine, and purchase or acquire any of the Collateral at any such sale or other disposition, all to the extent permitted by applicable law.

(e) Enforce the Borrower's rights against any account borrower or other parties obligated on the Collateral.

9.2. Power of Attorney. Effective upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Borrower hereby designates and appoints the Administration and its designees as attorney-in-fact of the Borrower, irrevocably and with power of substitution, with authority to endorse the Borrower's name on any notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders, instruments or other evidences of payment or proceeds of the Collateral that may come into the Administration's possession; to execute proofs of claim or loss; to adjust and compromise any claims under insurance policies; and to perform all other acts necessary and advisable to enforce this Agreement and the other Financing Documents. All acts of the attorney or designee are hereby ratified and approved by the Borrower and said attorney or designee shall not be liable for any acts of commission or omission, any error of judgment, or any mistake of fact or law. This power of attorney is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable so long as any of the Borrower's Obligations remain unpaid or unperformed or there exists any commitment by the Administration which could give rise to any Borrower's Obligations.

9.3. Notice of Disposition of Collateral and Disclaimer of Warranties. It is mutually agreed that commercial reasonableness and good faith require the Administration to give the Borrower no more than 5 days prior written notice of the time and place of any public disposition of Collateral or of the time after which any private disposition or any other intended disposition is to be made. It is mutually agreed that it is commercially reasonable for the Administration to disclaim all warranties which arise with respect to the disposition of the Collateral.

The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administration on demand (a) the amount of all Expenses paid or incurred by the Administration in consulting with counsel concerning any of its rights hereunder, under the Financing Documents or under applicable law, (b) all Expenses, including attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by the Administration in exercising or enforcing any of its rights under this Agreement, the Financing Documents, or applicable law, together with interest thereon at a rate of interest equal to 12% per annum from the date the Administration notifies the Borrower in writing of such costs or expenses incurred, until repaid in full, and (c) the portion of the Administration's overhead that the Administration allocates to collection and enforcement of the Borrower's Obligations ("Enforcement Costs"). Any proceeds of sale or other disposition of the Collateral will be applied by the Administration to the payment of the Enforcement Costs and Expense Payments, and any remaining proceeds will be applied by the Administration to the payment of the remaining Borrower's Obligations in any order and manner elected by the Administration. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the Administration's security interest hereunder and the payment of all Borrower's Obligations.

10. Deficiency. If the sale or other disposition of the Collateral fails to fully satisfy the Borrower's Obligations, the Borrower shall remain liable to the Administration for any deficiency.

11. Remedies Cumulative. Each right and remedy of the Administration set forth in this Agreement or the other Financing Documents, or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity, by statute, or otherwise shall be cumulative and concurrent and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy available to the Administration. The exercise of any right or remedy shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise of any other right or remedy.

12. Waiver. A failure or delay by the Administration to insist upon the strict performance of any term of this Agreement or the other Financing Documents, or to exercise any right or remedy for any breach thereof, shall not constitute a waiver of that term or breach and shall not preclude the Administration from exercising any right or remedy at a later time. By accepting payment after the due date of any of the Borrower's Obligations, the Administration shall not be deemed to have waived the right either to require payment when due of all other Borrower's Obligations or to declare an Event of Default for failure to effect payment of any future Borrower's Obligations. The Borrower waives presentment, notice of dishonor, and notice of non-payment with respect to accounts and chattel paper.

13. Miscellaneous.

13.1. The headings of this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the Loan Agreement and this Agreement, the Loan Agreement shall control.
